Hale House-Elderly Housing

Housing · https://community.womensmoneymatters.org/es/resources/hale-house-elderly-housing/

Link:

Hale House is a supportive housing facility in Massachusetts that provides a community for individuals with disabilities. It focuses on fostering independence while offering essential services and support. The organization emphasizes a person-centered approach, promoting residents' autonomy and well-being. Hale House offers various amenities and programs designed to enhance quality of life, including life skills training and social activities. The mission is to create a welcoming environment where residents can thrive and engage with the community.