Independent Project-NNEDV

Financial Calculators & Tools · https://community.womensmoneymatters.org/es/resources/independent-project-nnedv/

LINK:

The Independence Project website by the National Network to End Domestic Violence (NNEDV) provides resources and tools to help survivors of domestic violence achieve financial independence. It offers financial literacy training, workshops, and materials that focus on budgeting, saving, understanding credit, and accessing financial services. The project aims to empower survivors to regain control over their finances, which is an essential step in leaving abusive relationships and achieving long-term stability.