The Massachusetts Home Modification Loan Program (HMLP) page provides information about a program designed to help homeowners with disabilities or seniors modify their homes to improve accessibility and safety. The HMLP offers low-interest loans to fund necessary modifications, such as ramps, grab bars, and wider doorways. The page outlines eligibility criteria, the application process, and the types of modifications covered. Additionally, it emphasizes the program's goal of enabling individuals to live independently and comfortably in their homes. Overall, the HMLP serves as a valuable resource for enhancing home accessibility for Massachusetts residents.
