Financial Conversations with Military Community

Veteran Resources · https://community.womensmoneymatters.org/resources/financial-conversations-with-military-community/

Military life comes with unique financial situations. This guide provides insight and guidance to persons and organizations that serve military communities, including active-duty, reserve and National Guard servicemembers, veterans, and their families. The guide includes tools specially designed to address common financial challenges that military consumers face, such as:

- Whether to buy or rent a house while serving in the military
- How to leverage special savings opportunities exclusive to military families
- How the military relief societies can help when you’re in need
- How to financially plan for a Permanent Change of Station
- How to spot military affinity marketing and scams
