Oasis Senior Advisors

Housing · https://community.womensmoneymatters.org/resources/oasis-senior-advisors/

Link:

Oasis Senior Advisors in Boston's South Shore offers personalized guidance for families navigating senior housing and care options. Their services include free consultations to help identify suitable living arrangements, such as independent living, assisted living, or memory care. The team emphasizes understanding individual needs and preferences, providing resources and support throughout the decision-making process. Additionally, they aim to simplify the transition for seniors and their families, ensuring a smoother journey to finding the right community or care solution.