The Everything File

Accessibility Resources · https://community.womensmoneymatters.org/resources/the-everything-file/

Link:

The Everything File website offers a centralized resource for organizing and managing personal information. It provides tools and templates for users to track important documents, such as financial records, medical information, and legal documents. The site emphasizes the importance of having easy access to essential data for various life situations, including emergencies and planning. Overall, Everything File aims to simplify personal record-keeping, enhance organization, and improve preparedness for users.