

Accountability Agreement

An important part of the coach and participant relationship is being accountable to each other. In addition to helping set financial goals, we think it's helpful for participants and coaches to set personal goals about their relationship. By acknowledging this Accountability Agreement, you agree to fulfill the promises listed below:

- Respond to texts and phone calls within 24 hours
- Connect between workshops either virtually, by text, email, or in person (if it is safe to do so)
- Let the other person know as soon as possible if you are not able to make it to a workshop or to a one-to-one meeting and encourage the other to attend the meeting in their absence
- Be open and honest with your coach about your finances and goals to your coach
- Respect each other's personal boundaries
